

L.O. I can explore Jesus' teachings and how they inspire Christians today.

1. Give each child a set of Jesus' quotes and allow reading time.
2. Clarify any new vocabulary.

With your partner, take each quote and discuss the following questions for each card:

1. What does it mean?
2. Why is it a challenge?
3. What would change if everyone did this?

Example:	"You cannot serve both God and money."
1.
2.
3.

Choose 5 of your Jesus quotes and stick them in your book, annotating your thoughts underneath as we have just done in the example.

Mission statements

'To infinity, and beyond'

'For the colony, and for oppressed ants everywhere'

"A community of lifelong learners, responsible global citizens, and champions of our own success."

"A community of lifelong learners, responsible global citizens, and champions of our own success."

How do we put this into action?

What was Jesus' mission?

Consider this text carefully: Luke 4:18-19. It was Jesus' mission statement.

"The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to set the oppressed free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour."

Jesus was a 'man with a mission':

It had 5 points -

to give poor people good news;

to free prisoners;

to help the blind to see;

to give liberty to oppressed people;

to tell people God would bless them this year.

All over the world today, Christians try to put Jesus' mission into action.

'...the Catholic Church is responsible for one quarter of all healthcare provision. Globally, it runs 5,246 hospitals, 17,530 dispensaries, 577 leprosy clinics, 15,208 houses for the elderly and chronically ill and people with physical and learning difficulties worldwide...' (Catholic Herald 2010)