Seasonal Reading

Children across school enjoyed reading books and poems by the new Children's Laureate, Joseph Coelho. This may be something you wish to continue and enjoy together at home. The work the children have produced has made a beautiful display in the entrance. Have a look on twitter!

Children across school in Autumn 2 will be reading Tom Fletcher's book, 'The Christmasaurus.' The work they produce will create another beautiful entrance display - showcasing the standard of work in our school.
